Knights move into second after win in wet Wednesday clash with Magpies

Article By Tallon Smith

The Kiama Knights have taken full advantage of their game in hand from round 4 after securing a 26-4 win over the Berry-Shoalhaven Heads Magpies in their Group 7 Rugby league clash at Bomaderry Sporting Complex on Wednesday evening.

The win sees Kiama move into second place, equal with the Shellharbour Sharks on 23 competition points but ahead on points differential.

After opening the scoring through winger Callan Thistlethwaite in the 11th minute, the Knights maintained their early advantage, adding further first half tries to winger Matt Morris in the 16th minute and skipper Tom Angel in the 28th to open up a 16-0 lead through half an hour of play.

Some strong defence and another try just before half time saw Kiama take a comfortable 22-0 lead into the break.

A bruising opening to the second half followed, before a penalty gifted Berry-Shoalhaven Heads some much needed field position.

After their first attacking raid ended in an error, more good field position led to a chip and chase from dummy half, which was left behind by both teams, before Tyson Walker raced through to pick up the ball and score out wide to bring the margin back to 22-4 on the hour mark.

That was where Berry's joy ended however, with Kiama having the lion's share of possession in the final quarter of the match, adding one more try when Morris collected a delicate Sam Hooper kick to slide over for his second with two minutes to play to complete the full time score of 26-4.

Kiama halfback Cameron Vazzoler, who was named the BarTV Player of the Match for his strong performance in the conditions, said that a strong focus on defence and a good approach to wet weather football was key to the victory.

"The most impressive part was our defence, that was the focus coming into this game after conceding a few points last week," he said.

"We knew it would be a tight game in the wet and points would be hard to come by.

“Extremely happy with our effort and energy in tricky conditions.”

The match itself followed a chaotic afternoon as Group 7 authorities did their best to ensure the already rescheduled game was able to be played.

An 11th-hour venue switch was confirmed via email at 1:46pm, with the match moved to Bomaderry after the Berry Showground was deemed unplayable following heavy rainfall on the South Coast.

Last weekend: Sharks take GF rematch

The Shellharbour Sharks exacted revenge on perennial foes Gerringong in the year’s second Grand Final rematch with a hard-fought 24-18 win at Ron Costello Oval on Sunday.

After falling to Gerringong 13-12 in their first clash of the year back on the 12th of July, the Sharks exacted revenge, running in five tries to two to secure their second straight win.

The win sees the Sharks leapfrog the Lions and Kiama Knights into second place, behind leaders Stingrays who enjoyed a bye.

The Knights’ failure to pick up competition points came courtesy of a 26-18 loss to the Albion-Park Oak Flats Eagles at Centenary Field on Saturday.

Led by a 14-point performance from star half Kane Ball, who finished with two tries and three goals, the Eagles made it four wins and a draw from their previous six games, and are yet to lose to Kiama this year.

The Nowra-Bomaderry Jets were also among the winners in round 16, picking up a valuable two points in their fight to avoid the wooden spoon with a 24-22 win over local rivals Berry-Shoalhaven Heads.

The win draws the Jets level with the Magpies on 12 points as they fight to avoid the spoon, though Berry have a game in hand on Wednesday night against Kiama.

Finally, on Saturday, the Milton-Ulladulla Bulldogs got a much-needed victory over Jamberoo Superoos with a 40-22 win at Kevin Walsh Oval.

Kye Lynch crossed for a double as one of six try scorers for the Bulldogs as they secured a much-needed victory that sees them draw level with Jamberoo in sixth on 12 competition points.
