“UNBELIEVABLE”: ROOKIE WINGER DELIVERS FOR STINGRAYS WITH MATCH-WINNING TRY

TALLON SMITH

A stunning late try to rookie winger Dylan Hardy saw Stingrays of Shellharbour complete a great escape to defeat Kiama 28-23 at Flinders Field on Sunday afternoon.

After receiving the ball from centre Tim Lafai, Hardy raced down the touchline and put in a daring grubber around Knights fullback Thomas Atkins, before regathering the ball and diving over for one of the more remarkable match-winning tries Group 7 has seen.

Stingrays co-coach Mathew Burke said not all members of the coaching team agreed with the kick at first, but were ecstatic when the late try salvaged the two points for the injury-hit side after it let an early lead evaporate.

“I didn’t mind the kick, Tommy Warner was standing next to me, he was injured, he wasn’t a big fan of it, but he pulled it off, so we were over the moon for him,” he said.

“We had a few troops out, we started well, we were up 12-0 and they clawed their way back and hit the lead, and we just couldn’t gain momentum.

“Then Tim Lafai drew two defenders and gave it to Dyl, he was one-on-one with the fullback and grubbered it through and regathered.”

“For a young kid, it’s his first year in first grade, to have the confidence to do that is pretty unbelievable.

“He is leading the try scoring now in Group 7, so he just keeps getting better and better.”

The Stingrays raced out to a 12-0 lead through 16 minutes after tries to hooker Tom Eirth and James Ralphs, before Kiama hit back when Toby Lane took an Atkins kick on the bounce to cross out wide.

Further tries to Ashton Thurgate and Atkins saw the Knights take an 18-12 lead to the break, before they added a fourth early in the second half through winger Thomas Murray to stretch their lead to 10.

Stingrays’ comeback started 10 minutes later when Lafai crashed over running against the grain off halfback Isaac Morris, and continued when Hardy levelled the scores with his first try with 19 left to play.

The deadlock was broken by Kiama five-eighth Sam Hooper who potted a field goal with seven to play, before Hardy’s heroics on the bell stole the win for the home side.

When asked if he is happy with how the third-placed Stingrays are travelling, Burke said while there is still improvement needed, he was impressed with the way the side stood up when faced with a double-digit deficit against a tough opponent.

“Today wasn’t easy by [any] means, they were good, they were gutsy, I think they had a few troops out as well, but we have had the easier side of the draw the last couple of weeks, so to have a tough game and to come away with the points, it shows the boys are putting in the effort, so I’m pleased,” he said.

“We were aiming for third or better, and we’re sitting third at the moment.”

Looking at other results from around Group 7, the other Sunday games saw Albion Park-Oak Flats kept its unbeaten record intact by the barest of margins, with a Jack Talbott field goal sinking a resilient Nowra-Bomaderry side 13-12 at the Bomaderry Sports Complex, while Gerringong almost matched its 46-0 victory in round one with a 44-0 defeat of Warilla.

Earlier, Saturday games saw the Shellharbour Sharks win consecutive games for the first time since rounds one and two after accounting for Jamberoo 22-6, while Berry-Shoalhaven Heads and Milton-Ulladulla drew 10-all.
